Asia-Pacific Network for International Education and Values Education

December 14, 2016

Dear _____

Greetings of peace from APNIEVE-Philippines!

We are pleased to invite you and your colleagues to the 16th National Convention of APNIEVE-Philippines to be held on April 26, 27, 28, 2017 at the University of Northern Philippines, Barangay Tamag, Vigan City, Ilocos Sur. . APNIEVE aims to promote and develop international education and values education for peace, human rights, democracy, and sustainable development through networking and cooperation among individuals and institutions in the Asia Pacific region.

Participants of this assembly will be teachers and administrators from various colleges and universities from the different regions of the country.

This year's theme is “In Pursuit of Quality Education, the Past, Present and Future”. Conference strands will revolve around the leading-edge thinking about the quality of education, innovative approaches and practices that improve the quality of education, and the assessment, monitoring and evaluation of the quality of education, and the gaps where more research and efforts are needed to achieve inclusive and quality education by 2030.

The individual registration is P2,500 which covers your membership for one year (P1,000) and the conference fee (P1,500 for 3 lunches and 6 snacks, materials and use of facilities) for the duration of the convention, excluding accommodations. An optional half-day heritage tour costs P150 each. Institutional membership per school is 5,000

The CHED Memorandum and DepEd Advisory regarding the conference will follow. Attached are the tentative program, call for papers and list of hotel accommodations in the area.

For inquiries or concerns, you may contact Ms. Angelina B. Alcazar of Miriam College (580-5400 local 2047) or aalcazar@mc.edu.ph. Kindly indicate your intention of attending the conference so we can make the necessary arrangements.

Truly yours,

Lourdes Quisumbing , Ph.D.
